PROTECTING NEW ZEALAND'S BORDER

25th February 2022

Covid-19 Update for Private Yachts on C4G/Temporary Import Entry (TIE)

In January 2022 New Zealand Customs Service (NZCS) sent out a reminder notice that the Covid-19 extension for vessels in NZ on C4G/Temporary Import Entry concludes on 30 June 2022. NZCS accepts that under the current environment there have been some that are unable to comply. NZCS has taken this into consideration and the date has now been extended for a further twelve (12) months.

Final date for export of your vessel is 30 June 2023.

Yacht owners must continue to abide by the conditions set out in their C4G. Any breach of these conditions will invalidate the C4G and therefore this further extension.

If you are intending to sell your vessel while it is under a C4G/TIE, permission must first be given by NZCS.

If you have any questions or require clarification please email service.delivery@customs.govt.nz.
